HE KISSED HIS AUNTIE

Revelations in a Police Court Case.

THOMAS FITCH WAXES FUNNY

Jeremia Drank Up the Rent Money and Then Beat His Wife. Night Disturbers.

The case of Frank Ferreira, charged with assault and battery on Arthur Gulistan, which came up in the District Court yesterday, provoked considerable mirth, and some of the evidence adduced must have made some of the parties in the case wish that the matter had never been brought into court.

Gulistan testified that about 2 o'clock on Sunday afternoon he was sitting on a bench in Thomas Square, with his aunt, Mrs. C. H. Brown, and that defendant came up and grabbed him by the shoulders, threw him off the bench and told him to go home. His aunt advised him not to have any trouble with the assistant back inspector, and Gulistan, taking her advice, left the park with his aunt, and afterwards entered complaint against Ferreira. Witness said that defendant accused him of sitting on his coat. He denied that he was doing any such thing. He said that a baby that they had with them started to play with the coat, whereupon he took it and hung it over the back of the bench.

Mrs. C. H. Brown corroborated Gulistan's statements. When Gulistan had finished his testimony Ferreira sprung a sensation by asking him if he did not kiss his aunt in the square. The soft impeachment was denied emphatically. Ferreira also put several pointed questions to Mrs. Brown along the same line.

Ferreira put on as witnesses four small Portuguese boys, who were picking red beans with him in the square. One of the boys stated that he had seen Mrs. Brown kiss her nephew in the square. He was up a tree and had a good view of the proceedings.

In arguing the case Attorney Fitch, who appeared for the defense, said in who appeared for the prosecution, said in part as follows:

"The young gentlemen who have escaped from their trundle beds to come here and testify have said that there was some kissing going on in broad daylight in the square. While this is highly improbable, still such a thing might have happened. I see no reason why a nephew should not kiss his aunt if he wants to and she lets him. If I had as pretty an aunt as the young lady referred to, I would kiss her and you would, your honor, but probably not in broad daylight."

He also remarked that he thought that the infant mind had in this case been trained to see things which were not there.

"The case is not a very serious one," said Attorney Fitch, "but it is peculiar in that a policeman appears as the defendant. A policeman, above every one else, should respect the rights of the people."

Judge Wilcox remarked that defendant had gone too far in throwing Gulistan off the bench, and fined him $5 and costs. An appeal was noted.

Jeremia, a native, was sentenced to fifteen days' imprisonment at hard labor for assault and battery on Poralika, his wife. He pleaded guilty. Complainant said that she gave her husband some money to pay the rent with and that he blew it in at a saloon. When he came home she asked him for the receipt, whereupon Jeremia got mad and beat her.

Lilwa Wu, Kealoha (w.), W. Hano, J. K. Wauloa and Mrs. J. K. Wauloa, were fined $2 and costs each for disturbing the quiet of the night. They pleaded guilty. The trouble took place near Emma Square on Monday evening. Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth said that defendants were night disturbers with championship reputations, and that complaints about their discordant revels were continually coming in. He stated that not long ago he had to keep a couple of officers at their home for four consecutive nights.

Other cases dealt with yesterday were: Sasaki, heedless driving, nole pressed; Ah Chew, embezzlement, committed for trial; Araki, violating carriage regulations, $5 and costs; P. Machado, M. S. Pedro, J. Machado, M. Silva, M. Costa, J. R. Ramos, malicious injury, December 7; John Koon, John Talley, drunkenness, $2 and costs; Kapilohau, drunkenness, reprimanded and discharged.

Kapilohau walked to the police station last night and made a complaint against some people whom, he said, were disturbing him. He went away with the police, and when the disturbers were arrested he shared their lot. The charge against him was drunkenness. Yesterday Judge Wilcox let him go with a reprimand, saying that if he walked to the police station, he could not have been very drunk.

SMALL BEGINNINGS.

The most dire calamities usually begin with a trivial cause. Mrs. O'Leary's cow kicks over a lantern and Chicago is burned. The leaping chamois pursued by the hunter, starts a pebble rolling and an avalanche is formed that buries a whole village under countless tons of snow. A patriotic Scotchman rears the thistle that is his national emblem, and sows the whole land with stubborn weeds. It is just the same in our physical beings. The greatest diseases begin with the most trivial causes. The commonest thing in the world is a cough. Yet from a common cough spring diseases that baffle all human skill and science. Just because the cough is such a small thing at the start it should never be neglected, but rooted up while it can be handled with ease. The acorn sends up a little stem and puts out a few leaves. A little child can root up this germ of a tree. But let the acorn grow to the full stature of the oak, and it defies the strength of giants to uproot it. That's the way with the cough. Kickapoo Cough cure will cure any cough. But the cure cannot begin too soon. In nothing is delay so dangerous as in the treatment of a cough. Don't put off the treatment. Begin at once. But begin right. Kickapoo Cough Cure is a pure vegetable remedy. It cures the cough, strengthens the system against colds, and heals the tissues torn with the strain of coughing. It's the timely dose that is most satisfactory. Stop that cough at once! Kickapoo Cough Cure will do it every time.

KAULIA WANTS THE JOB.

He Would Like to Succeed Wilcox at Washington.

J. K. Kaulia, the ardent Home Rule politician, whose platform in the last campaign was based upon his campaign slogan of "snakes," has the Delegate-to-Congress bee in his bonnet. The ex-leader of the Home Ruler and anti-haole party has recently given utterance around the sacred halls of the police station to his aspirations, and there is no Territorial job he would like better than that of representing the Islands in the House of Representatives. In other words, Mr. Kaulia is of the opinion that he can fill the shoes of Delegate Wilcox to the satisfaction of all the residents of Hawaii. The boys at the police station were joshing him about the Advertiser cartoon of himself published recently.

"That's all right; these cartoons go to Washington; when I arrive there as delegate from Hawaii, they will all know who I am, and I won't have any trouble in being recognized."

Christmas Mail.

The postoffice officials request that for the convenience of all concerned Christmas packages intended for the Mainland be in at the postoffice by this coming Saturday. The Sonoma leaving for the Coast on the 10th will be the "Christmas boat" this year, and reviewing the experience of past years, the officials merely desire to warn senders of packages to get them in early, as otherwise, is they delay until the last moment, they may be disappointed in getting them off on the Sonoma.

The morning of life is the time of abundance, profusion, strength, vigor, growth. When the sun begins to sink, when the midday of life is past, then the hair begins to fade and the silvery gray tells of approaching age.

Sunrise or sunset? Which shall your mirror say? If the former, then it is rich and dark hair, long and heavy hair; if the latter, it is short and falling hair, thin and gray hair.

The choice is yours, — for

Ayer's Hair Vigor

always restores color to gray hair, stops falling of the hair, and makes the hair grow long and heavy.

This is something you have been looking for, isn't it? And it is something you can have confidence in, for it is no experiment; people have been using it for half a century. We do not claim it will do everything, but we do claim it is the best hair preparation ever made.
